B. Motions by Beth Pincus and Kim Smokowski:

1. All departments must look at each curriculum in their area and make note in the BCC Catalog of any course requirements that are offered only during specific semesters. This information must be included in the Catalog in the “Specific Program Notes” box for each such curriculum. This information shall be included in the 2013-2014 Catalog and shall also be incorporated in the individual student academic program evaluation form, which is the tool students use to follow their progress and to complete their programs.

2. In all instances where there are required pre-/co-requisite courses needed to complete a program, such courses shall be noted in the BCC Catalog along with information regarding Proficiency Testing. This information shall be included in the Catalog in the “Specific Program Notes” box for each curriculum for which the information is applicable. This information shall be included in the 2013-2014 Catalog and shall also be incorporated in the individual student academic program evaluation form, which is the tool students use to follow their selected course of study and to complete their programs.”
