Make-ups allowed at the beginning of the next class. These must be arranged with the instructor. Late assignments not are accepted. If absent from class, assignments may be emailed to the instructor or left in the Instructor's mailbox prior to the next class. Work will be accepted upon making specific arrangements with the instructor.

Class cancellations are posted in the A building next to the pay phones by the elevator. They are also posted in the Ender Hall lobby. You may also check the BCC website for closing announcements.

BERGEN COMMUNITY COLLEGE ATTENDANCE POLICY

All students are expected to attend class regularly and punctually for every scheduled meeting of each course in which they are registered. Attendance & lateness policies & sanctions are to be determined by the instructor for each section of each course. These will be established in writing on the individual course outline. Attendance will be taken at each class session for administration & counseling purposes.

ATTENDANCE POLICY IN THIS COURSE:

The study of a World Language necessitates that students attend classes regularly in order to obtain proficiency. Therefore, students are expected to attend class regularly, & actively participate in every class meeting, since a significant amount of learning takes place as a result of classroom interactions. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of every class session. Students absent more than four times will automatically drop one full letter grade (for every four absences); special circumstances may be discussed with the instructor. Each student is responsible for all material presented. If absent from a class, students are responsible for obtaining materials missed, information on assignments, etc. Cell phones must be turned off during class.

WORLD LANGUAGES & CULTURES PLACEMENT POLICY

Students interested in studying a world language at Bergen Community College may choose to either begin a new one or continue the language studied previously. Students who have studied a world language in high school, and have received a grade of B or better, should enroll in the appropriate Bergen course as follows:

STUDENT AND FACULTY SUPPORT SERVICES

Services for Students with Disabilities

A wide variety of services are available to students with documented disabilities through the Office of Special Services (OSS) Room L-116; (201) 612-5270; [www.bergen.edu/oss]. OSS is dedicated to serving students with physical, visual, learning, hearing, and psychiatric disabilities. If a student has been classified in high school or had a 504 plan, it is highly recommended that the student contact OSS during the college application process. A more detailed explanation can be found on the College web site www.bergen.edu Personal information is kept confidential. Examples of the types of accommodations and services include:

- Extended test taking time
- Organizational strategies
- Tutoring
- Career counseling
- Adaptive equipment computer labs
- Note takers

Library:

The Sidney Silverman Library is an integral part of the College's educational programs. To support the curriculum, the library acquires, organizes and provides access to a variety of print, media and electronic resources for individual and classroom use. It is open whenever classes are in session and on a reduced schedule when classes are not in session. The library is open to all students, faculty, and the general public. (BCC Catalog)

The library's webpage, www.bergen.edu/library is available for up-to-date information regarding library collections & services.

The library houses the Media Center, where there are several ASL-related movies, as well as the reference area, where you can get help finding books & journals for research.

General:

All students are subject to the rules, regulations and policies set forth in the current Bergen Community College Catalog.
