COURSE DESCRIPTION:
LAN 278 Intermediate Chinese (Mandarin) II is conducted entirely in Chinese and develops students’ Chinese communication skills through a study of the culture of China and some grammar. 3 lectures, 3 credits. Prerequisite: LAN 277, Intermediate Chinese (Mandarin) I with a grade of C or better, equivalent placement or permission of the World Languages and Cultures Department Chair. General Education Course.

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES:
Upon completion of the course requirements, students will be able to:
1. Continue to build the knowledge of the structure of the Chinese language;
2. Strengthen pronunciation “Pin-Yin” (the phonetic symbols in Chinese), and four tunes in Chinese;
3. Conduct conversations in Chinese by using learned patterns;
4. Communicate (listen, speak, read, and write) accurately and appropriately in Chinese;
5. Recognize and write approximately 350 new Chinese characters;
6. Continue to establish familiarity with Chinese culture, history and society;
7. Develop a foundation for further study of Chinese;
8. Enhance Chinese conversation and written skills;
9. Write simple letters, notes, or journal entries in Chinese;
10. Communicate in daily life by using Chinese comfortably.
ASSESSMENT METHODS:

Students will be assessed by the four skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Each of these skills will be assessed as follows:

1. Listening: Participation in class drills, class discussions and oral communication with instructor and classmates.
2. Speaking: Conversations in Chinese with classmates and instructor.
3. Reading: Recognition of the selection’s significance through periodic sight-readings, homework response essays, and classroom discussion.
4. Writing: Usage of Chinese phrases, sentence structures and vocabulary, and organization and expression of thoughts in weekly journal entries, short essays, quizzes, and exams.
5. Ability to construct emails: Frequent emailing to the instructor, classmates and pen pals.
6. Comprehension and description of a situation: Use of audio CD’s, videos, film, and pair/group performances.
7. Ability to define, develop, and explain the student’s area(s) of interest in Chinese:
8. Completion of a final presentation: This project will include a written proposal, an oral presentation to the class, and subsequent discussion involving the entire class.
9. Ability to compare and contrast histories and cultures: Participation in classroom discussions, response essays, journal entries, Chinese Club activities, Asian History and Heritage Week, Diversity Week, and World Week.

BERGEN COMMUNITY COLLEGE ATTENDANCE POLICY:

All students are expected to attend punctually every scheduled meeting of each course in which they are registered. Attendance and lateness policies and sanctions are to be determined by the instructor for each section of each course. These will be established in writing on the individual course outline. Attendance will be kept by the instructor for administrative and counseling purposes.
ATTENDANCE POLICY IN THIS COURSE:

The study of a foreign-language necessitates that students attend classes regularly in order to achieve proficiency. Therefore, students are expected to attend and actively participate in every scheduled class meeting. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class session. Each student is responsible for all material presented. If absent from a class, students are responsible for obtaining materials missed and information on assignments, by contacting the instructor, or a classmate.

Late homework, essays, and journals will be accepted no later than one class from the original due date and will be given half-credit.

Quizzes will be given weekly, promptly at the beginning of the specified class period. Late students will not be given extra time in which to complete the quiz. There will be no make-up for a missed quiz; missing a quiz is the equivalent to a zero. Students will be permitted to drop lowest quiz grade. A make-up for an exam will be given only in emergency situation. Official documentation to validate the nature of the absence is required.

WORLD LANGUAGES AND CULTURES
PLACEMENT POLICY

Students interested in study a world language at Bergen Community College may choose to either begin a new one or continue the language studied previously. STUDENT AND FACULTY SUPPORT SERVICES
Services for Students with Disabilities
A wide variety of services are available to students with documented disabilities through the Office of Special Services (OSS) [Room L-116; (201) 612-5270; www.bergen.edu/oss]. OSS is dedicated to serving students with physical, visual, learning, hearing, and psychiatric disabilities. If a student has been classified in high school or had a 504 plan, it is highly recommended that the student contact OSS during the college application process. A more detailed explanation can be found on the College web site www.bergen.edu Personal information is kept confidential. Examples of the types of accommodations and services include:
Extended test taking time
Organizational strategies
Tutoring
Career counseling
Adaptive equipment computer labs
Note takers
Sign language interpreters
The Sidney Silverman Library

The Sidney Silverman Library is an integral part of the college’s educational programs. To support the curriculum, the library acquires, organizes, and provides access to a variety of print, media, and electronic resources for individual and classroom use. It is open whenever classes are in session and on a reduced schedule when classes are not in session. The library is open to all students, faculty, and general public. (BCC Catalog)

The library’s webpage, www.bergen.edu/library, is available for up-to-date information regarding library collections and services.

All of the required texts for the course will be made available on Reserve. Go to the library Service Desk for access to the reserved copies.

GENERAL

All students are subject to the rules, regulations and policies set forth in the current Bergen Community College Catalog.
