Keynote & Book Signing: Evelyn McDonnell
March 6 / 1-45:30:30 / Ciccone Theatre

Acclaimed journalist, scholar, and author Evelyn McDonnell’s latest work Queen of Noise: The Real Story of the Runaways puts the spotlight on The Runaways – the raw all-girl, all-teenage, punk answer to Led Zeppelin and the first of its kind. Going beyond the sex, drugs, and sensational tragedies, McDonnell gives The Runways its own place in music, feminist, and cultural history. Join us as she speaks about her recent work Queen of Noise and sheds light on the challenges, successes, and pitfalls women have historically faced as they enter non-traditional, male-dominated fields – from Wall Street to Hollywood Boulevard, from the music industry to the STEM fields.

and her escape from FGM, a practice the World Health Organization defines as “all procedures that involve partial or total removal of the external female genitalia or other injury to the female genital organs for non-medical reasons.” The practice of FGM has affected over 125 million girls worldwide and is rooted in gender inequality, ideas about women’s purity, modesty and is an attempt to control women’s sexuality. Co-sponsored by the Judith K. Winn School of Honor.

Kickoff Party / 3:00-4:00 / C-211
Celebrating women of character, courage, and commitment. Refreshments provided by the Women’s History Month Committee.

Keynote & Book Signing: Evelyn McDonnell / 1-45:30 / Ciccone Theatre
Description above

Women in Math & Sciences / 12-30-1:30/C-316
Did you know that women who work in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics fields earn on average 33 percent more than women working in other fields? Join BCC students and faculty for a conversation that addresses women’s achievements and opportunities in the fields of math and science, Co-sponsored by the Judith K. Winn School of Honor and the STEM Club.

Women in Cinema / 6:30-8:30 / A-104
"Salaam Bombay" with Sarah Markgraf, Ph.D.
Women in Cinema / 6:30-8:30 / A-104
"Salaam Bombay!" an award-winning film by Mira Nair (Vanity Fair, Mississippi Masala), offers a gritty look at another culture and a peek at another culture, only to find that basic human nightmare, Nair’s highly acclaimed film allows the viewer to control women’s sexuality. Co-sponsored by the Judith in the fields of medicine and social sciences.

Women’s History Month exhibit at the Meadowlands Artsfacts from the daily life of New Jersey women, 1880-1900s. Designed by the students of the BCC History Club, Meadowlands.

mar 26
Book & Brunch / 12:30-1:30 / C-320
"The Legacy of Phillipa Foot and the Trolley Problem"
Phillipa Foot, one of the most important moral philosophers of the twentieth century, conceived of this useful and feared thought experiment. Foot was a professor of philosophy at the University of Oxford and UCLA. Professor Tobyn DeMarco of the Philosophy Department will lead the discussion.

Self-Defense Seminar / 1-00-2:30 / main gym
Join Toni Plantamura-Rossi for a seminar on self-defense strategies. Join Toni Plantamura-Rossi – lecturer, entrepreneur, and athlete – in a workshop designed to increase anyone’s sense of security and well-being anywhere, anywhere. The workshop is open to men and women of all ages and levels of fitness, anyone who would like to learn about self-defense strategies you can use as you go about your daily life.

For information about these events contact Christine Eubank, Ph.D. at ceubank@bergen.edu