

Virtual event via Zoom in commemoration of International Holocaust Remembrance Day

Holocaust survivor, Erwin Forley, will tell his story

Tuesday, January 26th
12:00 – 1:30 p.m.

Erwin Forley (né Feuerstein) was born on December 6th, 1927, in Košice, Czechoslovakia. After being sent into the Munkacs Ghetto, Erwin and his family were deported to Auschwitz, where his grandmother and 12-year-old younger brother were murdered in the gas chamber upon arrival. Erwin endured forced labor and starvation until his liberation by the Russian troops. He, his mother and his sister immigrated to the United States in 1946.

For registration link, visit www.bergen.edu/PJR/events

Any questions, contact bmargolies@bergen.edu

MUSEUM OF JEWISH HERITAGE
A LIVING MEMORIAL TO THE HOLOCAUST

THE CENTER FOR
peace, justice & reconciliation
AT BERGEN COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Sponsored by the Center for Peace, Justice, & Reconciliation at Bergen Community College • bergen.edu/PJR and the Museum of Jewish Heritage • mjhnyc.org/