A Holocaust Survivor Remembers: Reflections on Being a Hidden Child

Presented by Maud Peper Dahme

Wednesday, April 4, 2018

12:30-2:00 p.m.

Paramus Campus, TEC 128 (Park in Lot B - section G)

When she was four years old (May, 1940) Dahme's native Netherlands was invaded and several of her immediate family members were deported to Sobibor, an extermination camp in Poland. She survived in hiding with her sister, thanks to brave Christian families.

Dahme will discuss the significance of genocide education and the importance of emphasizing the efforts of people who hid, protected and rescued Jewish people while risking their own safety. Maud Dahme has been a member of the New Jersey Commission on Holocaust Education since 1982. She is the author of Chocolate, the Taste of Freedom.

Light refreshments will be served.
