

THE CENTER FOR PEACE, JUSTICE AND RECONCILIATION AND THE OFFICE OF MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS PRESENT

Challenging Immigration Detention: History and the Power of Storytelling

a Presentation by Kristina Shull, Ph.D.

Monday, November 14

11:00 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

Paramus Campus,
Pitkin Education Center
Room A 104

Kristina Shull is currently a 2016 Soros Justice Fellow and a Lecturer in US and World History at the University of California, Irvine. Her course topics at UCI include race and mass incarceration, foreign relations, Cold War culture, climate change, and migration. At the national non-profit organization Community Initiatives for Visiting Immigrants in Confinement (CIVIC), she works to dismantle the immigration detention system from the “inside” by challenging censorship practices, exposing abuses, and lifting up migrant voices in popular media and public discourses.

Office of Multicultural Affairs

THE CENTER FOR
peace, justice
& reconciliation
AT BERGEN COMMUNITY COLLEGE

H A C K E N S A C K | M E A D O W L A N D S | P A R A M U S

Bergen Community College is an equal opportunity institution. For disability accommodation, please contact the Office of Specialized Services at 201-612-5269 or ossevents@bergen.edu.