3 credits; 3 hours lecture

COURSE CLASSIFICATION:
HRM/LGL-219 Hospitality Law is a required core course for the Hospitality Management and Event Planning and Management AAS degrees, and the Certificate in Hospitality Management, in the Hotel/Restaurant/Hospitality Department. As a restricted elective course it may be used to complete the requirements for any other Certificate or Degree Program in the Hotel/Restaurant/Hospitality Department.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
HRM/LGL-219 Hospitality Law provides industry specific legal fundamentals to students and practicing professionals in the hospitality industry. It introduces basic foundations and principles of the law affecting the hospitality industry and introduces guidelines and techniques that show managers how to manage preventively and apply a practical legal awareness to their actions.

MEANS OF ASSESSMENT:
Student participants will:
1. Describe hospitality examples of the importance of Selection,
   Teaching, Education, and Managing in the STEM process;
2. Apply the seven criteria for ethical behavior to a particular situation;
3. Identify a Code of Conduct for a chosen facility;
4. Explain the concept of “fiduciary responsibility” and ethics;
5. Discuss the concept of a “franchise”;
6. Research “legality” as a major component required of an enforceable contract;
7. Discuss “breach of contract”;
8. List and describe those clauses essential to contracts utilized when providing products and services to guests;
9. Identify the essential contract clauses that protect a hotel when contracting to provide space and food products for a large wedding party;
10. Show the differences between an express warranty, and an implied warranty;
11. Indicate some exceptions to the at-will employment doctrine;
12. Define the concepts of Zero Tolerance, Prevention, Investigation, and Resolution as they refer to sexual harassment;
13. Explain the difference between a breach of contract, a crime, and a tort;
14. Study examples of strict liability as applied to hospitality managers offering food, lodging and entertainment products;
15. Explain the purposes and Identify the limitations of “Exculpatory Statements” posted in areas of the hospitality facility;
16. Analyze the four-step safety and security management method;
17. Assess the pros and cons of self-insurance in the area of workers’ compensation.

EVALUATION AND GRADING:
The grading system used in this course will count class participation, and projects. The following allocation will be used:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Component</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Class Participation</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Projects (4), 20% each</td>
<td>80%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

When a student is absent from one or more classes, a grade cannot be recorded for those absences on those days since the student was not there to earn a grade. Additionally, if a project is due on the day the student is absent, there will be penalty of 10 percent of the grade when the project is submitted.

NOTE: In borderline cases, which arise in almost every class each semester, a student's attitude and observed effort will be considered in helping to determine the student's final grade.
TEXTBOOK:

OTHER COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

The attendance book will be available during the class; be sure to check in, otherwise you will be carried in the roll book as being absent.

If the student's schedule and the instructor's office hours conflict, an appointment must be made to meet with the instructor at a time which is convenient to both. It is the student's responsibility to discuss any problem he/she may have in this course with the instructor as soon as possible, so that counseling, advice and/or tutoring can be arranged if needed.

The use of cell phones in class is prohibited. CELL PHONES MUST BE TURNED OFF WHILE IN CLASS. If a cell phone rings while a student is in class, the student will be asked to leave and will be considered absent for the day.

If the student MUST receive an emergency call during class, the cell phone MUST be on vibrate or other noiseless indicator, and the student will leave the class quietly so as not to disturb the instructor or other students. If an emergency call is expected, the student must notify the instructor before the class starts.

Students who require accommodations by the American with Disabilities Act (ADA) can request support services from the Office of Specialized Services of Bergen Community College, 201-612-5270 or http://www.bergen.edu/pages/676.asp
