Dr. Waitman Beorn will join us over skype to speak on Digital Humanities and the Holocaust: Mapping Experience in the Janowska Camp

Dr. Waitman Wade Beorn is a Senior Lecturer in History at Northumbria University in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, UK. He is also a consultant and writer for the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. Dr. Beorn's first book Marching Into Darkness: The Wehrmacht and the Holocaust in Belarus (Harvard University Press) won the Thomas J. Wilson Memorial Prize for best first book from Harvard Press. Dr. Beorn is also the author of The Holocaust in Eastern Europe: At the Epicenter of the Final Solution (Bloomsbury Press, 2018). He is currently preparing a major project on the Janowska concentration camp outside of Lviv, Ukraine. This book project is tentatively entitled Between the Wires: The Janowska Camp and the Holocaust in Lviv. He has been awarded National Endowment for the Humanities, Fulbright Foundation, Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation, and Claims Conference fellowships. He is also active in the digital humanities and is currently working on four major digital humanities projects. The first is the mapping of 17,000 residences for Jews in the Lviv ghetto, the second covers the Holocaust in Eastern Europe as a whole, the third will map Himmler's appointment book, and the fourth is a 3D model of the Janowska camp. He is currently partnered with the Lviv Center in this work.
