COURSE DESCRIPTION:
LAN 170 American Sign Language, is an introduction to the expressive and receptive skills required for communication in American Sign Language (ASL).
Through active class use of basic vocabulary, grammar, and syntax, students will begin exploration of Deaf culture and begin to learn the language of that culture. This course is recommended for students who have had less than one year of previous study of this language. 3 lectures, 1 lab, 3 credits. General Education Course.

Student Learning Objectives:
Upon completion of the course requirements, students will be able to:
1. Develop and practice basic introductions.
2. Respond and/or ask simple questions.
3. Give and inquire about simple personal information in basic ASL conversations.
4. Discriminate amongst finger spelled words and names.
5. Practice using various non-manual markers/behaviors (facial expression and body movements), spatial reference and negative statements.
6. Give and correct information in giving directions.
7. Apologize and give simple reasons.
8. Read and comprehend the information in the Deaf World related to Deaf community, sign language, family issue, education, evaluation, language & literacy of Deaf children and adults.
9. Comprehend and use basic grammatical features of ASL including:
   Wh-word-questions, Yes/No questions, Negative responses, Noun-verb pairs, Possessive pronouns, Contrastive structure and simple role-shifting, Time signs, Numbers 1-100.
ASSESSMENT METHODS:

Student will be assessed on the interpersonal communication: functional-notional approach, role-play situation, grammatical structures, and class activities: Each of these situations will be assessed as follows:

1. A student’s ability to acquire ASL conversations by learning and practicing basic introductions will be determined by class participation, discussions, and workbook exercises.
2. A student’s ability to respond from English (speaking) to ASL (signing) will be assessed by class participation, discussions, and workbook exercises.
3. A student’s sign proficiency will be determined by class participation, independent or paired ASL presentations, daily ASL conversations with other student in class, lab time, and presentations.
4. A student’s ability to develop basic finger spelling words and names in daily ASL conversations.
5. A student’s ability to use appropriate non-manual markers, negation responses, and spatial reference in daily ASL conversations.
6. A student’s ability to use appropriate basic ASL signs for giving good and clear directions.
7. A student’s ability to respond to other person’s questions with giving answers or simple reasons.
8. A student’s ability to comprehend the information of the Deaf World such as Deaf community, family issue, education, evaluation, services, language & literacy of Deaf children and adults by reading the first part of the six chapters.
9. A student’s ability to use and apply her/his knowledge of basic grammatical features of ASL in daily ASL conversations.

PREPARATION EXPECTATIONS:

HOMEWORK/QUIZ/EXAM POLICY:
Late homework, essays, and journals will be accepted no later than one class from the original due date and will be given half-credit. Quizzes will be given weekly, promptly at the beginning of the specified class period. Late students will not be given extra time in which to complete the quiz. There will be no make-up for a missed quiz; missing quiz is the equivalent to a zero. Student will be permitted to drop lowest quiz grade. A make-up for an exam will be given only in emergency situation. Official documentation to validate the nature of the absence is required.

COMMUNICATION POLICY:
This course is designed to develop communicative skills in ASL. These skills are most effectively developed by using the language to communicate. Therefore, with the expectation of the first class’s orientation, and lectures on Deaf culture, this course will be taught using only in ASL in the classroom; spoken English will NOT be permitted during class. You may communicate by WRITING, SIGNING, USING MIME, OR GESTURES. No talking will be allowed while signing. Students are expected to follow the communication policy. CELL PHONES MUST BE TURNED DOWN TO VIBRATE OR NO VOLUME: students may not make calls, answer calls, send or respond to texts during class. If your phone rings, you will be asked to leave class and be given an absence for the class meeting. Students who also violate the communication policy will be asked to leave the class and given an absence for the class meeting. In order for students to maximize their learning, they are encouraged to respect the communication policy.

BERGEN COMMUNITY COLLEGE ATTENDANCE POLICY:
All students are expected to attend punctually every scheduled meeting of each course in which they are registered. Attendance and lateness policies and sanctions are determined by the instructor for each section of each course. These will be established in writing on the individual course outline. Attendance will be kept by the instructor for administrative and counseling purposes.

ATTENDANCE POLICY IN THIS COURSE:
The study of foreign language necessities that students attend classes regularly in order to achieve proficiency. Therefore, students are expected to attend and actively participated in every scheduled class meeting. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class session. Each student is responsible for all material presented. If absent from a class, students are responsible for obtaining all materials missed and information on assignments.
