PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Middle States Self-Study Update

President Friedman informed the board that he just returned from Maryland where he led a team of peer evaluators as part of Prince George's Community College Middle States reaccreditation. He thanked the Middle States Commission for offering him this opportunity.

The early drafts of Bergen's self-study chapters are ready for review. The goal for the next two months is to identify three things in the Self-Study chapter narratives:

1. Locate missing evidentiary documentation for the Self-Study.
2. Identify action plans for full compliance with the criteria found within the seven standards.
3. Identify institutional areas of concern.

Resolutions

Dr. Friedman advised that one resolution on the Consent Agenda for approval request 17 positions to be de-obligated from the organizational chart. We remain committed to full focus on the strong stewardship of our fiscal resources.

Enrollment

Dr. Friedman reported that enrollment is flat in credit hours same point last year. We made strides with our headcount which is now 12,407 students.

PTK Honors

The Phi Theta Kappa has earned the following awards this semester:

- The chapter has earned REACH Reward recognition.
- Mateo Armas will receive the $5,000 Guistwhite Scholar award.
- Shiwa Yangzom is a 2024 Coca-Cola Academic Team Gold Scholar who has received a $1,500 scholarship.
- Alum Amanda Karpinski will be inducted into the Phi Theta Kappa Hall of Honor.
- Executive Director of Public Relations, Dr. Larry Hlavenka, has earned the Distinguished College Administrator award.

Advising Redesign

President Friedman recognized the work of the Division of Student Affairs, adding there is an advising redesign currently underway which will focus on a new proactive model of intervention. Dr. Jennifer Migliorino-Reyes and Dr. Dianna O'Connor have led this effort.

Tutoring Awards

The Association of Coaching and Tutoring Professionals has named Bergen's professional academic coaches Dr. Daneiah Nasser and Mana Mehdizadeh, as recipients of the 2024 "Academic Coach of the Year Award". Dr. Friedman offered his congratulations to both.

Paramedic Science Site Visit Update

The Health Professions department just completed their Committee on Accreditation for the EMS (CoAEMSP) site team visit. The Paramedic Science program performed very well, and is in compliance with all 5 Standards; however, one area needs attention. The visiting team offered suggestions on best practices around that and it's being worked on.

Culture of Presentation

Dr. Friedman congratulated Dr. Anthony J. Trump, Dr. Anjali Thanawala, and Dr. Jessica Fagnoli for being selected by the New Jersey Council of County Colleges to present their doctoral dissertations and research to colleagues from across New Jersey as part of NJCCC's "practitioner scholar series".

Women's History Month

President Friedman recognized the Women's History Month committee for developing an excellent schedule of events. A conference will take place tomorrow at the main campus to provide students with the opportunity to hear from community leaders and participate in dialogues. The month will also include a film series and a poetry event. Visit bergen.edu/heritage for the complete calendar.

Commencement

Save the date! We have officially scheduled commencement 2024 for Tuesday, May 14 at 10 a.m. at MetLife Stadium.

A Bergen Love Story

Dr. Friedman shared a story from Professor Jim Bumgardner about two theatre students, Sarah Villarini and John Kroner, who played the lead roles in "Picnic" in 2019 where they first met and had since developed a relationship. John brought Sarah back to the theatre (unbeknownst to Sarah) to propose.
