

Dreamland:

an Addiction Series Skype Presentation
with Sam Quinones

Wednesday, April 27

11:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

TEC-128, Paramus Campus and C-503, Meadowlands Location

Sam Quinones is a Los Angeles-based freelance journalist and author of three books of narrative nonfiction. His latest book is Dreamland: The True Tale of America's Opiate Epidemic (Bloomsbury, 2015), for which he traveled across the United States.

Dreamland recounts twin stories of drug marketing in the 21st Century: A pharmaceutical corporation flogs its legal new opiate prescription painkiller as nonaddictive. Meanwhile, immigrants from a small town in Nayarit, Mexico devise a method for retailing black-tar heroin like pizza in the US, and take that system nationwide, riding a wave of addiction to prescription pills from coast to coast.

Sponsored by the Center for Peace, Justice and Reconciliation, the Office of Multicultural Affairs, and the Department of Biology and Horticulture.
